JUDICIAL CONVENTION.
MAYVILLE, Ky., July 24, 1902.
The inhabitants of the Northern District of Kentucky are requested to meet in Judicial Convention in the city of Mayville on Wednesday, July 24th, 1902, at 2 o'clock p.m. for the purpose of nominating candidates for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney, to be voted for at the coming November election, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the Convention.
The basis of representation will be one delegate for every 100 votes cast for William McKimley, the Republican candidate for President in 1900, and one vote for each fraction over 50 votes cast. Upon this basis the Convention will be composed of 30 delegates, distributed among the five counties of the District as follows, viz:
Buckner 10
Clinton 10
Franklin 10
Madison 10
Meigs 10
Delegates are requested to be selected in the several counties in the District in such manner as the County Judges and Commonwealth's Attorneys may deem proper, and to designate after giving proper notice to the call.
By order of the Republican District Committee at a meeting held in the city of Mayville on the 24th day of July, 1902.
CLARENCE MATTHEWS, Chairman.

For the purpose of selecting delegates to the Circuit Court District Convention, to be held in Mayville July 24th, 1902, at 2 p.m., to nominate candidates for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney, a Mass Convention of the Republicans of Mason county is hereby called to meet in the Courthouse, Mayville, July 24th, at 2 p.m.
Delegates will also be selected to attend the State Convention to be held in Louisville, Ky., August 1st, to nominate a candidate for Chief of the Court of Appeals.
CLARENCE MATTHEWS, Chairman.
That element of the Democratic party which is opposed to the free and unlimited export of silver finds much encouragement in recent developments. In every state where campaigns are in prospect the gold Democrats have organized and will run separate tickets. The developments which have attended the preliminary organizations indicate that they will rally to the gold standard a much larger percentage of the Democracy than they did in the last fall's campaign. In many counties in Kentucky the attendance at the Gold Democratic Conventions was larger and more enthusiastic than that of the Convention of the Free-silver wing of the Democratic party.

AFTER OTHERS.
State Inspector Lester Thinks Kenton's County Clerk One in Many.

State Inspector Lester is in Western Kentucky. A state official to whom the Inspector had just talked at length was more communicative than he, and said: "We believe that the case of County Clerk Wilson at Covington is only one in a dozen. We believe that several County Clerks are playing their dupes about one-half the amounts the Courts have allowed them for clerk hire, office expenses, etc., and are charging the state with all the Court allows when they are asked to turn over the office receipts in excess of the salary they are allowed, clerk hire, etc."

"Either these dupes should get the money or the needy state should get it. It should not go into the pockets of Clerk who the law provides shall get much salary and no more. It is easy for the Clerk to go before the Court and express the opinion that it will require a certain sum to run his office and fix the amount at about all he gets over and above his salary. Then he can get cheap clerks and are about half the amount allowed him by the Court, while the state gets nothing out of an office that yields five times as much as it costs to run and running expenses. If there are any other dupes the facts are going to be ventilated."

WEEKLY CROP REPORT!
PROSPECTS THROUGHOUT THE STATE OF KENTUCKY.

GENERAL REVIEW.
A very decided change in temperature set in at the beginning of last week. From an average daily maximum of 90 degrees the week preceding, the thermometer fell to an average daily maximum of about 80 degrees. During the first half of the week the temperature was 10 degrees below the normal. It was then unseasonably cool both day and night. The growth of tender plants was checked by the cool weather prevailing, especially during the night. On the morning of the 13th instant a minimum temperature of 30 degrees was reported from stations in the Eastern section. By the close of the week the mercury was again rising to the seasonal level, but it was still too cool for the best growth of vegetation.

Sunshine was slightly deficient. Conditions were generally favorable for local showers, and those which did occur were of truly local character. As a result rainfall was very unevenly distributed. Amounts which are regarded as heavy for the week were reported from Bardonia, Buchanan, Lexington, Mt. Sterling, Richmond and Williamsburg. In that appears the Central section fared best in the distribution of rainfall, but there is complaint of damage from an excess of rain in the counties West of Lexington and Trigg. There are also two districts in which drought prevails. One of these embraces the counties lying between Hancock, Breckinridge and Meade on the North, and Logan, Franklin, Allen and Barren on the South. In portions of this district only very light showers have occurred in more than six weeks. The only dry district includes the extreme Northern counties from Carroll and Owen Eastward to Lewis. In the sections here considered moist, there are exceptional localities where rain is badly needed, but in the districts referred to as dry there are no reported exceptions to the rule.

As to the crops, the weather conditions were not favorable to growing crops, except as chance might favor one portion of a county to the exclusion or detriment of the other. As an illustration heavy rains interfered with threshing and other farm work in the Northern portion of Nelson county, while complaint of dry weather comes from the Southern portion, where wheat is not up to expectations.

WESTERN SECTION.
In Livingston county and Southwest ward wheat is all harvested, but threshing has been interrupted by frequent showers. The yield is abundant and of excellent quality. Oats are a good crop. Corn is growing finely. Tobacco is reported damaged and drying on the hills. In the droughty district corn and tobacco are suffering badly. In some localities the early corn crop will be a failure, unless rain comes to its rescue soon. Chinch bugs are prevalent and doing much damage. The tobacco plants are small and indifferent and worms are at work. Wheat is nearly all threshed, and, as a rule, it is up to expectations. Gardens need rain. Watermelons are extra fine, but late. There will be a good crop of cantaloupes.

CENTRAL SECTION.
In this section there are localities where rainfall has been excessive, and there is apprehension lest damage may result to wheat while in shock, threshing being delayed by frequent showers. Reports as to quantity and quality of this crop are eminently satisfactory. Corn is advancing quite rapidly, but it is two weeks behind the season and uneven in growth. In some localities it has been plowed for the last time. Oats are fair, the heads being weighty, but the straw short. As in the Western section reports on tobacco continue discouraging. In certain places it is frizzling. It is everywhere short and indifferent in growth, and in extreme Northern counties worms are causing damage. Too much rain, or not enough. Haying is well under way. Second crop of clover promises well. Gardens are generally fair. Pastures in good condition. Blackberries are abundant. Potatoes are short.

EASTERN SECTION.
Showers retarded wheat threshing, though the amount of rain resulting from them was light as a rule. Wheat crop is generally satisfactory. Oats are about, though well filled. Corn is doing well, perhaps better than in either the Western or the Central section. Tobacco is not much improved. Pastures are in good condition. Hay is being cut. There is some complaint of "white top" in localities. Millet looks well. Gardens are doing well. Potatoes are plentiful, especially berries, and in some counties peaches.

The New Senator From Tennessee Arrives in the Capital. The Senate Will Not Reach a Final Vote on the Tariff Conference Report Before Friday.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—When the Senate adjourned Wednesday the understanding was general that the final vote would be taken on the conference report on the tariff bill not later than Friday, but there was no formal agreement to this effect. Both Senators Jones and White, who have been leading the opposition to the bill on behalf of the Democrats, expressed the opinion that the vote would not be postponed beyond Friday. Senator Allison also stated that while he still considered a vote possible, he thought it would be better to wait until it would not be postponed beyond Friday. In the event of a vote on the tariff Friday final adjournment is generally expected for Saturday.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—President McKimley was the recipient Wednesday of a unique present in the shape of a large Georgia watermelon. Several members of the delegation in Congress, accompanied by several ladies and W. H. Mitchell, of Atlanta, the southern freight agent of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, made the presentation in the blazon of a white house. The melon was about 2 1/2 feet long and measured six feet in circumference. It was packed in a golden hamper, wrapped in the American flag and the arms of the state of Georgia. It weighed 75 pounds. It was secured by the southern office of the B. & O., which received a prime Georgia melon grown in the south this year. The states of South Carolina, Georgia, Florida and Alabama compete for the prize.

Senator Rife, of Tennessee, received a telegram Wednesday from his new colleague, Mr. Turner, saying that he would arrive in Washington in time to take his seat in the Senate at the opening of the session Thursday.

The rush of miners, supplies and goods to the Alaska gold fields is expected by the treasury department to give increased activity to the Alaska trade on the Pacific coast. Trade between the United States and Alaska is restricted by law to American vessels and the department has no authority to make any exceptions or grant permits to foreign vessels. A steamer was tested in May, 1899, when a famine was reported in the Yukon district and application to permit a foreign steamer to carry relief supplies from Seattle to San Francisco was denied by the department on the ground that the law is prohibitory.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The tariff conference report was taken up in the Senate Wednesday after routine business was disposed of, and the final reading of the report proceeded.
